

“Class for Enthusiastic Photographers– honoring Carl Nilson”.

Free Photography Classes

Memphis Camera Club Life Member Tom Furlotte will teach a series of classes on the basics of photography. Tom is retired after 31 years at Memphis Photo Supply and a past president of the Memphis Camera Club. Tom has taught classes in photography for the Memphis Board of Education and the University of Memphis Continuing Education.

Classes are free and open to both members of the MCC and non-members alike.

Classes will be held in the Longinotti Auditorium of St. Francis Hospital (near Park and Ridgeway) on the fourth Thursday of each month starting around 7p.m. Try to arrive early because hospital security locks the doors at 7:00

Topics for the series are subject to change, but the tentative schedule is:

January	Introduction: Digital Camera Set Up
February	Exposure and Metering
March	Camera Controls: The Shutter
April	Camera Controls: The Aperture
May	Depth of field / Hyperfocal Distance
June	Basic Workflow
July	Lenses- focal length and perspective
August	Composition
September	Flash
October	Accessories

Classes will NOT be held in November and December. Enjoy the holidays and take lots of good pictures.
